A big thank you to the teen leaders and adult leaders who attended 4-H Camp with us last week. Most all of the 138 4-H'ers who took part had an enjoyable time.

Our recent visit to Nebraska led to the discovery of several new 4-H project materials. The 4-H'ers in Adams County, Nebraska have a Bowling project, a Golf project, Rope Tying project, Wilderness Survival, Weather, as well as others. Some of you 4-H'ers or leaders may want to stop by and look over these "different" project materials.

Achievement Record workshops will be held at the Extension Office from 1:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, August 21, and Thursday, August 23. The purpose of these workshops will be to provide an opportunity for older 4-H'ers to begin work on their records. All 4-H'ers are invited to participate. Please bring your 4-H project materials with you.

August 6th Bloodmobile Visit Successful

The first visit of the new fiscal year netted 93 units of blood, seven units short of the goal but we are really happy about that amount. Thanks donors!

There were eight first time donors; Randall Bennett, Brenda Martin, Serena Mosley, Kathleen Richardson, Merryl Wright, Randy Hipps, Lynn Porton and William Arnold.

We really have repeat donors as you can tell by the number of pins awarded to donors. Five gallon donor pins went to L.E. Nash and William D. Barnes; four gallon donor pin went to Roger D. Davis; Harry H. Hamlett, Violet Barnes, and Eleanor T. Stratton received three gallon donor pins; and Geraldine Martin Moore and Carol Myers Martin each received a two gallon pin; and Frances J. Goin and Rev. Daniel Menser each got a one gallon donor pin.

Volunteer nurses at this visit, each giving 3 hours of their time, were Ann Sefter, R.N.; Nancy Doss, R.N.; May Shorter, R.N.; Gladys Moon, R.N.; Frances Dyess, R.N.; and Lena McLean, R.N. Brenda Franklin, medical technician volunteered 6 hours.

Other volunteer workers were Ray Page, John Franklin, Roma Moore, Vicki Canada, Phoebe McGill, Ann Pittman, Linda Mays, Julie Coffman, Miranda Dunn, Ruby Roach, Marietta Irby, Frances Wilson, Elizabeth Jamerson, Reva Moses, Judy Johnson, Lynn Lucado, Joann Hippert, Jane Bennett, Margaret Megginson, Eva Mayberry, Jake Lone, Brandford Lucado and Clayton Martin.

Ruby Roach, Linda Mays, Tamara Nash and Pam Mays were on the Telephone Committee.

Food was donated by Kings Market, Wilbun's Super Market, Parkway Grocery, Maudes, John Mosby Inn, Virginia Hunter and Pepsi Cola Bottling Company.

Nursery workers were Mildred Hubbard, Essie Miller, Cindy Ranson, Virginia Smith, Ethel St. John, Debbie Powell, Nellie Bryant, Thelma Conner, Becky Lawson, Pam Mays, and Judy Johnson.

The Appomattox Junior Woman's Club recruited workers.

C.L. Purdue put out large signs, Lynn Lucado and Alice Martin put out posters and thanks to the TIMES-VIRGINIAN and Radio WTTX for the publicity given this visit and previous visits.

Bet you never would have guessed that it takes the help of all these volunteer workers to make possible one visit of the Bloodmobile. It takes just a little effort for each one, if many work together, to get a big job done. Are YOU doing your share?
